

Meet Stacy

*Are you hungry for CE that will teach you not only WHY...
But HOW?

Get ready for high impact CE! With the heart of a coach and teacher, Stacy McCauley, RDH, MS shares proven systems and strategies for creating stellar practice communication, increased team performance and sharper clinical skills. Utilizing realistic case studies and a workshop environment, Stacy's courses bring perspective and skill sets to dental professionals. As a seasoned educator, Stacy understands the importance of a learning environment infused with humor and energy as well as a down to earth message and take aways that can be put to immediate use.

Stacy is an Adjunct Assistant Professor at UNC Chapel Hill, where she also received her Master's Degree in Dental Hygiene Education. She brings over 20 years of dental industry experience including clinician, corporate dental business, and most recently as a lead coach and speaker with Inspired Hygiene, a national consulting firm. She is committed to empowering dental teams to blow open the doors of what's possible in their practice. Get ready to DREAM BIG and practice smarter (not harder) with her no-nonsense approach to optimum patient care!

Testimonials

"Perfect mix of content for dentists, office administrators, and the clinical staff. She delivers high-impact information with clear strategies for implementation."

- Joseph Nemeth, DDS, Ma.C.C.S.; Periodontist, Southfield, MI

"Stacy's CE program drew the biggest audience at this year's South Carolina Dental Association Annual Session... great feedback from attendees... will definitely have her back for our state dental society meeting."

- Lee Gardner, DDS; SCDA Annual Session
